COMMUNITY IMPACT

Showcasing the value of UW Communication donors in the lives of our students, faculty, and community partners...

“

"I think that if Christy [C. Bulkeley] were still with us, she would want to impart the following lessons to the women communicators of today:
(1) Be sure employers know your ambitions and
(2) Don't believe that you are less able than men."

- Jo-Ann Huff Albers || Director
School of Journalism and Broadcasting,
Western Kentucky University -

To be awarded for the first time in Spring 2019, The Christy C. Bulkeley Endowed Memorial Scholarship is yet another chapter in the shared history of the UW Department of Communication and The Association for Women in Communications (AWC).

Made possible by a gift from The Matrix Foundation, the scholarship honors Bulkeley, a "smart, energetic, and forward-looking" journalist; one of the few female newspaper publishers in the United States in the 1970s. A former AWC president, Bulkeley received the organization's National Headliner Award in 1978, in recognition of her pioneering career.

Learn how the legacy of this trailblazer will influence the next generation of communicators...
