COMMUNITY IMPACT

Showcasing the value of UW Communication donors in the lives of our students, faculty, and community partners...

"We hope that this scholarship will provide the means to foster even more curiosity within its recipients. Curiosity is what propels you forward as a communicator. It's what drives you to seek out more knowledge, uncover the insights, and learn what's behind the story."

- Dawn Beauparlant,
Chief Client Officer || WE Communications -

A driving curiosity, a passion for people; a new academic award celebrates the founder of a global public relations firm and aids those with the ardor to grow, learn, and find their own place in the industry.

Awarded for the first time last spring, The Pam Edstrom, WE Communication Student Support Fund supports undergraduate Communication majors. The inaugural recipients of the award, Hannah Gavin and Marleny Monterrozo, both expressed their delight and gratitude during a recent visit to WE Communications' Seattle offices ...
