WORDS FROM THE CHAIR

At the beginning of June, we celebrated the graduation of more than 400 UW Communication students. On a beautiful afternoon in the University's Quad, our faculty and staff joined with family and friends to share the milestone of degree completion by our Bachelors, Masters, and Doctoral students. It is always one of the best days of the year. For this newsletter, I'd like to celebrate a couple of our departmental highlights of this past academic year, my tenth as Department Chair ...

UW DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION GRADUATION
CELEBRATION 2018

On June 7, 2018, hundreds of undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral students gathered in The Quad to celebrate receiving degrees from the UW Department of Communication. Anthony (Tony) Angell was recognized as the 2018 Distinguished Alumnus. As the keynote speaker, Angell spoke about his hopes for the future, as embodied through the graduating class: "I believe we live in a pretty great country, by the way. I think it needs a lot of fine-tuning, and we can make it even greater; and we will, and here's the promise that's stepping out to do so ..."
